

Rena Poling

Music Theory

Instructor

Skills

Experience

Education

Awards

Rena Poling

Grand Rapids, MI 49503

www.RenaPoling.com

As a freelance composer and pianist, I put music theory into action on a daily basis. I am passionate about music, and love sharing this passion with others through private theory and composition lessons.

I arrange worship music for Trinity Baptist Church. I serve on their music committee, and volunteer as the artistic director for their handbell choir.

Grace Christian University/Adjunct Music Theory Professor

August 2019-Current Grand Rapids MI

Knollcrest Music Camp / Music Instructor

July - August 2019 Calvin University, Grand Rapids MI

Instructor for "Music 101" week long class, covering basics in music theory, technology, history and composition

University of Michigan / Music Theory Tutor

2012 - 2013 Ann Arbor MI

Rena Poling Music / Freelance Composer

2009 - Current

Working with individuals and corporations around the globe, composing original music for commissions, transcribing recordings, arranging songs, engraving scores, and helping edit Sibelius and Finale files

Pacific Northwest Film Scoring Program

Masters of Music (Film Composition)

2013-2014 Seattle WA

Studies included theory and analysis, music technology, jazz music theory, composition and orchestration

University of Michigan School of Music, Theater & Dance

Bachelors of Music (Composition)

2011-2013 Ann Arbor MI

Studies included theory and analysis, counterpoint, western plainchant, composition and orchestration

Graduated with Highest Honors from the University of Michigan (2013)